

MA in Intercultural Communication
Progress Flow Chart

YEAR ONE

Fall #1 – 6 credits

- a. MLL 605: The Field of Intercultural Communication
- b. EDUC 627: Instructional Strategies for Teaching Foreign Languages in Secondary Schools
- c. Lang Track OR North American Track Course #1

Intercultural Policy Track:

PUBL 603: Theory and Practice of Policy Analysis OR
PUBL 601: Political and Social Context of the Policy Process

Spring #1 – 9 credits

- a. MLL 601: Intercultural Pragmatics and Discourse Analysis
- b. MLL 602: The Ethnography of Communication
- c. Lang Track OR North American Track Course #2

Intercultural Training Track:

MLL 625: Intercultural and Cross-cultural Communication Training

OR

Intercultural Filmmaking Track:

MLL 695: Intercultural Filmmaking

OR

Intercultural Policy Track:

LING 610: Language Planning OR another graduate elective (in consultation with advisor)

START CONSIDERING YOUR OPTIONS FOR YEAR TWO RELATED TO MA THESIS (6 credits) OR MA SCHOLARLY PAPER (3 credits)

YEAR TWO

Fall #2 - 9 credits

- a. MLL 603: The Political Economy of Culture
- b. Lang Track or North American Track Course #3 and/or #4
- c. MA Thesis (option); please submit thesis proposal at beginning of Fall #2

Intercultural Training Track:

MLL 626: Advanced Methodologies in Intercultural Training

OR

Intercultural Filmmaking Track:

MLL 606: Theory and History of Intercultural Media

January of Spring #2

Comprehensive Exams:

You must have completed three of the four core-course offerings (MLL 605, 601, 602, 603) before you are eligible to take these exams.

Spring #2 - 6 credits

- a. MLL 602 or 601 (whichever course was not completed in Spring #1)
- b. MA Thesis (continued) OR MA Scholarly Paper

NB: ALL Graduate Teaching Assistants must also be enrolled EACH SEMESTER for GRAD 600 (part-time) or GRAD 601 (full-time)

ESOL Graduate Certificate (12 credits):